Inappropriate title of my invention given in the REPLACEMENT FILING RECEIPT

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen,

I thank the Commissioner for Patents for the Replacement Filing Receipt and the 371 Acceptance Letter, Confirmation No. 7796.

In the Replacement Filing Receipt (Confirmation No. 7796), the title of my Application (US Application No. 10/089,369 ; Filing Date: 03/28/2002) is changed and is given as „Potrayal of emotions in electronic devices“

Although the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization translated in this way the title of my considered invention in the International Publication (International Publication No.: WO 02/23474 A2, International Publication Date: March 21, 2002), it is an inappropriate translation. The word potrayal is inappropriate translation of the German word Darstellung in the context of the title and the Description of my Application. The only appropriate translation of the title „Darstellung von Emotionen in elektronischen Geräten“ is as given in my Transmittal Letter and all relevant documents attached to this Letter.

„REPRESENTATION OF EMOTIONS IN ELECTRONIC DEVICES“

In my Application PCT/DE 00/03210 to the United Kingdom Patent Office, the title
has been accepted by this Office.

For these reasons, I request to accept the statement

as the title of my considered Application.

The requested title is written by hand on the attached copy (as page 2 of 2) of the received Replacement Filing Receipt

Yours sincerely,

A. Schurmann
